

British Burn Association
Self-harm in burns study day

Wednesday 20th September 2017
University of Nottingham*

10:00am-4:00pm

(Registration and refreshments from 9:30am)

We aim to cover:

- Definition and theories of self-harm
- Burns-specific research literature
- The patient's experience
- How to assess risk
- Surgical decision-making
- Therapeutic interventions with individuals who self-harm

- The day will aim to address issues for both adults & young people

The day is designed for all members of the burns MDT including surgeons, AHPs and nurses, as well as the psychosocial team . CPD points are being applied for.

Cost (including refreshments and lunch): £50 (BBA members)/£80 (non-members)*

To book a place please use the attached form . The deadline for applications is midday on 5th September 2016. Early booking is recommended.

For more information, contact Laura.Shepherd@nuh.nhs.uk or Jennifer2.Heath@live.uwe.ac.uk

Exact venue at the university TBC. Free parking will be available. The university is well served by public transport*