

LAING ESSAY PRIZE 2023

Open to all involved in burn care. The Essay, titled:

Multi-resistant Organisms in Burn Patients: Is This the End, or a New Beginning?

should be of a maximum 5000 words and in the style used by Burns Journal.

Your Essay should use sub headings, contain an introduction, main body, discussion and conclusion as a minimum. The essay should be well referenced using the Vancouver referencing style. An abstract of up to 150 words should also be provided with your Essay and a list of up to 6 keywords.

Three referees, appointed by the BBA, will judge and award the winner £500.

The prize-winning Essay may be eligible for publication in Burns at the discretion of the Editor.

Should the prize-winning Essay not be accepted for Journal publication, it may be published on the BBA website at the author's request.

Closing date for applications: Monday 3rd April 2023 at 5pm

Winner will be announced at BBA Annual Conference, June 2023

The BBA Trustees reserve the right to award a runner-up prize if sufficient high-standard submissions are received.

For further information or to submit your essay, email info@britishburnassociation.org