

The British Psychoanalytic Association (BPA) presents
an exclusive screening of 'Perfection', directed by Christina Beck

Freud Museum, 20 Maresfield Gardens, NW3 5SX

Monday 18th February 2019. Registration for drinks/canapés: 7pm

Kristabelle, a young adult self-harms in an attempt to 'feel alive'. Her mother is addicted to plastic surgery in a struggle to maintain her youth. The film explores the intra- and interpersonal dynamics of individuals resorting to self-harm and concludes with a powerful message of how love can heal wounds that are more than skin deep...

The following expert panelists will approach the subject of self-harm from the medical, sociological and psychoanalytical perspective.

Joan Thompson, (Chair) Psychoanalyst, BPA member and founder of the BPA film society.

Ioannis Goutos, Plastic Surgeon & Scar Management Specialist, Barts Health NHS Trust

Alessandra Lemma, Psychoanalyst, Co-Director Young People Therapy & Consultation Centre, Queen Ann Street Practice/Consultant, Anna Freud National Centre for Children & Families

Tickets: £45+booking fee

To book tickets ,please click here:

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/self-harm-tickets-52859235396>