

Management of the Critically Injured Burn Patient

Mar Hall Golf & Spa Resort
Glasgow, Scotland

14-15th September 2023

Click here
to book

RCOA
Accredited
8 CPD Points

Thursday 14th September

1400: Registration & Coffee

1415: Welcome

1420-1450: Mr Jorge Leon-Villapalos

Current controversies in burns critical care

1450-1700: Burn Critical Care: Current Practice in the UK

A networking event to facilitate Burns Critical Care clinicians to share best practice, address current challenges and learn from other Burn networks.

This event aims to build relationships that allow future collaboration on advancing Burns Critical Care practice and research across the UK.

1900: Drinks Reception

1930: Dinner & Keynote Speech

Mr Stuart Watson & Mr Ian Taggart

Developing the Adult Burn Service in Glasgow

2100: Ceilidh

Management of the Critically Injured Burn Patient

Mar Hall Golf & Spa Resort

Friday 15th September

0845-0900: Welcome

0900-0930: Prof Odhran Shelley Updates from the British Burn Association

Session 1 Research in Critically Injured Burn Patients

0930-1000: Prof Naiem Moiemem The RE-ENERGIZE Trial: Enteral Glutamine for treatment of burn injuries

1000-1030: Mr David Barnes Early tracheostomy in adult ICU patients with severe burns

1030-1045: Coffee

Session 2 Clinical Dilemmas in Burns Critical Care

1045-1115: Dr Lia Paton Hyperpyrexia in burn injuries

1115-1145: Prof Odhran Shelley Frailty and burn injuries

1145-1215: Dr Padmaja Polubotho Resistant infections in burn patients

1215-1245: Dr Kathryn Puxty European Burns Association Guidelines for Burns Mass Casualty Incidents

1245-1330: Lunch

Session 3 Big Data

1330-1400: Dr Emily Bebbington Past, present and future role of registries in the prevention and care of burn injuries

1400-1430: Dr Christopher McGovern Long-term outcomes following burn injury: Deranged physiology, morbidity and mortality

Session 4: Perioperative Challenges

1430-1500: Dr Matt Bayhnam Challenges for the anaesthetist in major burn injuries

1500-1530: Mr Stuart Watson Burn reconstruction

1530-1545: Coffee

Session 5 Pro-Con Debate

1545-1610: Pro/Con Debate Inhaled therapeutics should be standard of care for inhalation injury

Pro: Mr David Barnes

Con: Dr Lia Paton

1610-1620: Questions and Vote

1620-1630: Working Together in UK Burns Critical Care

1630: Close of Meeting

